* All prices mentioned are excluding 5% sales tax.

 If a police report is drawn up, there is no deductible for smashed windows. However, if the mandatory police report shows that there were valuables in the car, the renter will be held responsible for a deductible of US$ 100.00.

In order to avoid theft, you are requested to:

- not leave any valuables in the rental car
- leave the dashboard open

Important:

Please note that credit card insurances generally do not cover pick-up trucks. Unless the renter knows for certain that his/her credit card covers pick-up trucks, please assume otherwise.

If the renter declines to purchase our insurance, any damage must be paid in full before leaving the island.

The renter is responsible for claims regarding his/her insurance company.

In all cases, a police report must be drawn up. Without a police report, the renter will be held fully liable for any damage to the rental vehicle.

If damage to the rental vehicle has occurred in a collision not by fault of the renter, liability depends on the insurance of the third party. In the event that the third party is not insured or cannot be held liable, the renter will be held liable for any damage to the rental vehicle or to their purchased insurance deductible.
